

A Place to Live – Work Plan 2012

What we want to do?	Action	Who	When	What will be different?	Update
Make sure that the information people need is available and accessible	Review all existing information & make changes that are needed	A Place to Live Group	By April 2012	Information will be complete and up to date

Make sure that people who give advice to people with learning disabilities know how to support them with housing	Bring these people together and make sure they are up to date on where information is and where to go to with more advice	A Place to Live Group	July 2012	People who give advice will be confident about housing information, including tenancy issues and on mental capacity issues
---	--	------------------------------	------------------	---	--

Make sure that people with learning disabilities can access useful learning in how to live more independently	Find out what learning opportunities are available now and make sure people with learning disabilities can access them Find out if a new learning program is needed, and if it is, start to create one	A Place to Live Group	December 2012	People with learning disabilities will be able to learn the skills they need to live more independently
--	--	------------------------------	----------------------	--	--